Unacceptable terms of use (can't tell ...

Unacceptable terms of use (can't tell customers on our customer database we've moved some products to a different website also owned by us which customers have already purchased the item) account was suspended then banned forever. "please find another email provider" no way to rectify mistakes. Expensive option for what it's worth and customer service don't want to know. First violation of their terms despite no warnings and emails being reviewed before sending. youre out the first time sent or not!

Automation options are lacking also much better services out there for a better price.

ABSOLUTE GARBAGE

Checked, double checked, triple checked. Sent five flawless test emails before sending my list. And MailChimp proved there's a reason they have to pay for good reviews. It arbitrarily failed to send various addresses on my list, and it duplicated my template so it appeared twice, one above the other, in the email. For a public relations-sensitive industry like mine, it was a disastrous introduction to my market. If you care about your business, NEVER USE THIS CRAP PROGRAM. And if you got burned like me, let them know via sites like TrustPilot, not all the others that float to the top of Google search because they paid to manipulate the results.

Perfect location! 5 minute walk to Amsterdam Centraal. Close to lots of wonderful bars, restaurants and shops. I would absolutely stay here again.
